

PILGRIMAGE TO PADUA

Thank you for your request for further information on this holiday/pilgrimage to Padua, the city of St Anthony, in the Veneto region of Italy. The programme (subject to change) is as follows:

- Thu 18 Arrive Venice Airports and onward transfer (around 50 minutes) to the Casa del Pellegrino in Padua. Lunch/Snack depending on arrival. Siesta. Late afternoon visit to the Basilica complex of St Anthony starting with an audio-visual presentation on the life of St Anthony, before a guided tour of the Basilica. Evening Mass. Dinner. Optional evening stroll to the Prato (a traditional place for fairs and amusements reclaimed in 1775 and featuring 78 statues of famous men, all born in, or connected with Padua).
- Fri 19 Morning visit to the Church of the Eremitani (15th century frescos of the Assumption and Stories of St James and St Christopher) and double-timed entry for the Scrovegni Chapel (Giotto's famous last work). The rest of the morning is free to visit the superb Eremitani Museum (ticket included). Lunch. Afternoon guided walking tour through the historic centre with visits to the Palazzo Ragione (built in 1218 by the Commune as a seat of government and law courts. In the galleries and under the arcades over 50 shops constitute the oldest commercial centre in Europe), and the Cathedral Baptistry (containing the finest and complete cycle of late 14th century paintings by Giusto de' Menabuoi). Evening Mass. Dinner.
- Sat 20 Morning guided visit to the Basilica of Santa Guistina (where the relics of St Luke have recently been re-found) for Mass. The rest of the morning is free to visit the weekly market on the Prato and/or to visit the ancient church of Santa Sofia in the Via Altinate or beyond the Prato to the Sanctuary of Saint Leopoldo Mandic and the nearby late baroque church of Santa Croce and/or the Antonian Museum in the basilica. (See also Monday pm). Afternoon guided visit of the University 'Bo' (medical theatre where James Harvey discovered how blood circulated in the body and from where the first women - Elena Lucrezia Corner-Piscopia - graduated in 1678.) and the Café Pedrocchi. Dinner.
- Sun 21 Morning Mass. Morning guided visits to the Oratory of George (14th century family chapel of the Soragna family decorated with frescoes.), the Scuola del Santa (built in 1427 for the Brotherhood of St Anthony with a cycle of 18 frescoes by various artists illustrating the miracles of St Anthony with three works by Titan from 1511) and the Botanic Gardens (the oldest in Italy founded in 1545 by the University Faculty of Medicine). Lunch. Afternoon excursion along the Brenta Riviera (the picturesque waterway that links Padua to the Venetian lagoon and on whose banks the noble Venetian from the 16th century onwards built splendid villas) with a guided visit to the Versailles of the Veneto - the Villa Pisani at Stra frescoed by 18th century painter Giovanni Battista Tiepolo and once owned by Napoleon, together with its gardens and a maze. Dinner.
- Mon 22 Morning excursion to visit the Sanctuary of the Walnut Tree at Camposampiero for Mass. Return to Padua via the Shrine of St Anthony at Arcella where the saint died. Free afternoon - see Saturday morning options. Dinner.
- Tue 23 Morning Mass. Excursion west of Padua to the Euganean Hills of volcanic origin and famous for its many spa towns for a morning guided visit to the gardens of the 17th century rural Villa Barbarigo at Valsanzibio. Snack lunch in Villa cafe. Afternoon visit to the Benedictine Abbey of Praglia. Dinner.

Wed 24 Excursion to the area west of Padua to visit the Shrine of Our Lady of Monte Berico (with Mass) overlooking the Palladian city of Vicenza. Afternoon visit to the Teatro Olimpico (built in 1597), the only surviving Renaissance theatre in the world. Dinner.

Thu 25 Morning transfers to Venice Marco Polo Airport.

In Padua, we stay at the Casa del Pellegrino. This popular three-star hotel is situated within the medieval city opposite the Basilica of St Anthony - thus making it very easy to visit the shrine (open 06.30 - 19.30 daily). The Casa del Pellegrino is a recent name for a hotel that dates back to the 18th century. Behind the 18th century façade this very friendly and very clean 3 star hotel offers (162) modern en-suite rooms (toilet and shower), air-conditioning and tv. Most rooms overlook the inner garden, while others overlook the Basilica of St Anthony. All rooms are accessible by lift. The large restaurant offers continental buffet breakfast and set menu main meals with ¼ ℓ wine and ¼ ℓ mineral water per person. The casa also has a snack bar - as well as its own small private chapel.
